

CONSULTANTS TO BOARD

The complex problems of a modern school system may necessitate assistance or opinions of outside specialists. When the Board of Education identifies such specific needs, it may call upon and employ qualified consultants to assist. The duties of such specialists shall be specified by the Board.

Dated Adopted: 9/2/03