

VALUES EDUCATION

The Board of Education believes that basic human values are essential to the development of the total person. Making values relevant to students is an essential component of education, a critical part of the whole child. Lessons about values must be transmitted to our students at all times—in the classroom and in extracurricular activities.

The Superintendent of Schools shall develop regulations to guide staff and administrators in this important endeavor.

Date Adopted: 12/7/04